My dream is to give other women the courage to feel beautiful in their own skin and their own authenticity. It's difficult to be a single and divorced mother of four, but I never would have imagined becoming a model. I even got to walk runway with Victoria Henley from America's Next

Top Model. Believe in yourself, even when nobody else does and the odds are stacked against you. You got this.

My dream and goal is to one day become a well known actress/model and make something of myself. I have achieved becoming a certified Vet Technician and a TEFL teacher. The challenges I've faced are growing up in a lower income family and not having the means to get extensive acting and modeling training so I've done it all myself. I've studied day in and day out to learn everything I could about becoming an actress/model.

Jessica Jane

Born and raised in British Columbia Canada since 1999, Jessica Jane is a Canadian Youtuber and Freelance Model. Beautiful Inside and out- and if smoking weed was a personality trait she'd have it.

Here's what she has to say;

"I dream of one day being able to create something that outlives my lifetime and makes an impact. By 2025 I hope to be successful in my career, and recognized for what I do. Something I'm proud of is how strong the human body is, woman in particular.

I gave birth outdoors in my own front yard, catching my baby with my own hands without intervention or medication. Doing so only made me feel more powerful!

I've had to face hardships too such as harassment, jealousy and judgement from society, I never had many friends growing up so I got switched to an alternative school eventually, I still have trouble making friends.

I'd like to remind anyone reading this, To keep your mind wide open and never give up on your dreams."
