My name is Evalette Nova Reyes. I'm 9 years old from Anaheim, California. I've been training Brazilian Jiu Jitsu for 3 years now and am a grey belt under Professor Diego Segura out of Carlson Gracie Academy of Garden Grove. I also wrestle for Arreola Wrestling Club and compete in dance for Leap Academy. One of my favorite things to do outside of sports is spend time with my family and my french bulldog named Cinco. One of my most memorable achievements was being promoted to grey belt. My goal is to continue training , competing and to become a black belt. I dream of one day being a world champion at the black belt level. I believe that I can achieve this with the help and support of my parents, brother, coaches and teammates. I hope to inspire other young dancers to try Jiu Jitsu.
