August 2021 WAS A DEVASTING MONTH FOR ME, because it is when I had an onset of Bells Palsy on the left side of my face....

Bells Palsy Attacks the main facial nerve on either side of your face and paralyzes that side completely...

On August 22nd I woke up to find the left side of my face completely paralyzed by Bells Palsy.

What made this so much more difficult to accept is that THIS was not my first go round with Bells Palsy....

I had the right side of my face paralyzed 8 years ago from the same thing...

Bells Palsy strikes without a warning, and in my first experience with Bells Palsy, I woke up with the right side of my face paralyzed. It affected me physically, but the biggest blow was to me mentally. The hardest things for me to accept were that; I had to tape my eye

Shut to sleep and when showering; because I couldn't close my right eye. Eating and drinking was difficult and often embarrassing because if I tried to drink from a glass, (like normal), whatever I was drinking/or eating would come out/fall out of my mouth and dribble down my face because I could no longer close my mouth all the way... Those are just two of the many things Bells Palsy effects.

THE RIGHT SIDE OF MY FACE HAS recovered about 85% and I had regained most of my facial movement on the right side... So with that being said I'm sure you can now understand why after realizing I might never recover and have both sides of face paralyzed due to now having double bells palsy has made me want to be an advocate for anyone who has been affected or might become affected like my self with Bells Palsy.

I hope I explained well enough why receiving a FEATURE IN YOUR MAGAZINE OR

ON/IN ANY PLATFORM POSSIBLE would really help with my cause/advocacy for showing anyone who has been affected by or may become affected by Bells Palsy in the future that you can still follow a dream like me with modeling, and you can live a somewhat normal, happy, life, and follow your dreams after Bells Palsy... Yes, it is devastating, but it is possible to not allow something as devastating as your face being paralyzed on both sides stop u...

I can't express how much this would help me bring awareness to this rare but devastating issue.

Brandi Cook is sexy, smart, loves the outdoors & traveling .... and has a sense of humor! Being called cute as a model so often Brandi adores being called sexy, and she's smart enough to know that she is. Brandi is a scientific researcher earning her Ph.D. in Chemistry from the University of South Florida, with Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Cellular, Molecular, and Microbiology already under her belt. She also enjoys teaching scientific subjects and has been a lecturer at USF motivating and inspiring students in biology & chemistry classes and labs.

Brandi has lived and traveled to different states throughout the United States and looks forward to exploring in other countries and getting to learn about cultures from their origins. She has lived in desert state of Arizona, mountainous state of Montana and near the eastern and western coasts in Florida and California respectively.

Brandi's passion for gaining cultural understanding may root from her Native American upbringing, which is a culture that has gone through historical pressures which has created individuals who possess great humor, like Brandi does. Brandi is always up for a good conversation and joke, even while modeling for the arts in body paint, she's always open for a good-hearted laugh and flattering compliment.

As a model I think one of the biggest challenges I face is remembering to watch what my face is actually doing. I get so lost in my shoots, sometimes I forget that I am not only fierce but that I am also sugar..

My name is Dana, i am 32 years old and i am a tattoo collector. I have discovered my passion for this form of art when i was in collage, i had my first tattoo done when i was 23 and i must say that was the point where i became addicted to it. My main inspiration for this beautiful victorian style came from a very well known tattoo artist - Ryan Ashely DiCristina. I have received so many compliments, wherever i go people are stunned when they see my tattoos especially the one on my neck. I think tattoos are a very powerful tool of seduction and Men and women definitely do seem to be drawn to this form of art – I think it's synonymous of exoticism and wildness, of women who are free spirited and don't conform. I do think I have quite feminine, striking tattoos that are sexually appealing to men and fit both with my aesthetic and lifestyle. Of course, attraction is based on so much more than (in this case, literally) what is skin deep. But no one is immune to superficial attraction, and it's just one of the many weapons in my arsenal! I am planning more tattoo sessions in the future, i must say i am not a huge fan of the pain but the final result is all that matters to me!

I have always enjoyed dressing up in pinup styled clothing since I have always like to watch the older movies and listen to that type of music! I have that curvy figure and sure do like all kinds of food! As a big movie fan I also am told I look like Marilyn Monroe. She was one of my favorites! I have visited Paris and sure liked visited all the shops! I also live with a few on my girlfriends and we always go out to the movies! I do not have a car so I do a lot of walking which is healthy and I enjoy. It would be so exciting to live in Paris! It would be fun to do an actual pin up shoot with a lot of classical cars, or trucks, or an old fashioned van. It does not bother me that I do not have a boyfriend since I have close girlfriends that I am always with. It is fun working in retail since I get to help ladies with choosing their outfits and they love my witty, cheerful, bubbly personality. Living in the city of San Diego sure is fun! There is always something to go to!

Kelly Marie Jones

My name is Kelly Marie but people usually call me MJ just because I am always buying clothes, hats, scarfs, and my family and friends compliment my styles. They are know I am very fashionable with all the outfits I put together. It would be cool to maybe be a clothing designer. I also like to travel and meet all kinds of people. I have some challenges due to my anxiety but I get a lot of support from church. I always keep a positive attitude and love taking my own photos as a hobby. I'll be turning 25 next month and will be celebrating it with my church friends.

I am always enjoying getting new lingerie outfits and really like this bra since it is silky with the nude color so I wanted to submit these photos that I took with the silky bra! I am from New Jersey and enjoy working as a waitress since recently I have gotten new customers and they have been leaving me nice tips which I appreciate! It is always a long day but I get through my days at work since I am such a people person! I also recently got more outfits so I will be also submitting those too! I also have been doing other activities around my community such as churches and other non profit organizations. It is nice to just be friendly since people will trust you and they will listen to your life and you can learn so much about their lives! There is so much out there to learn and I enjoy learning different things!

Ever since I was a little girl, I had always dreamed of growing up to be a supermodel, oneday walking the runway just like the ones I admired most; {on tv, course}-the Victoria's Secret Angels! What started out as play in front of a mirror or walking down my hall "catwalk", eventually turned into a genuine pursuit as I became a teenager. After years of compliments on my beautiful aesthetic coming from friends, family, and even strangers- all randomly stopping to tell me I should start modeling, I finally agreed and went on at 14 years old to check out some modeling talent recruiters/schools. And just as soon as I was ready to get started, it was over just as quickly due to outrageous costs.

Fast forward 10-15 years, Life happened and {seemingly} crushed my aspirations at the time; I was over my head working on my bachelors degree in nursing as well as raising a child as a single mom. But after graduating college, things finally began to settle down as I went on to continue work managing a psychiatry practice; a job that, up until recently, after 15 years I had eventually grown to hate it. I needed a change. A big one! And it was that very moment I knew, at 31 years old, it was now or never! So I took a risk and quit my job, to pursue modeling full-time. I knew that I needed to learn a WHOLE LOT, in a very short amount of time, if I were going to be able to make the most of getting a very late start. Since starting this new journey, I've set many ambitious goals right off the bat, and it didn't take very long before I was smashing them! About six months into shooting, I had already been published in International Model Magazine. Twice now, earning the cover spot in their April 2021 issue! I have also since smashed my biggest goal so far; getting cast and walking my very first runway for HiTech Moda and Orlando Swim week in July 2021! That feeling, being on the runway was the most exhilarating experience of my life! It's inspired me to delve into all the different styles of modeling, with a newfound interest in high fashion and haute couture. No I've only been modeling for about two or three years now, I feel that I've explored just about all the different niches and have developed a level of proficiency in most, if not all of them! My favorite will always be runway, although some fashion shows can be a little difficult to get cast for, being so heavily tattooed. But if I had to pick a second favorite, I really love shooting fine art and/or boudoir; it's such a powerful style of shooting that really brings out beautiful, sensual emotion, And it's so very empowering, all at the same time!

My goal for 2022 is to get signed by a few boutique agencies around here in Orlando. I'm already represented by a mother agency called Modelsout, but. To reach my truest potential, I really need to put myself out there. And now that my portfolio is finally just about complete I feel I'm ready to take it to the next level. Also will be trying Miami & New York, hopeful to get signed by one or more of the big names in the industry! I feel and believe strongly in my look, despite being a little older than others. My exotic look paired with good, youthful-genetics will be the key to finding success in this industry; achieving my modeling goals and dreams that will, in the end, have been SO worth the risk of quitting my dayjob for something new that pushes my creative boundaries and makes my heart so so very happy ♡
